The CFA Program

in Recommend 20

To earn a CFA charter, you must have four years of qualified investment work experience, become a member of CFA Institute, pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct on an annual basis, apply for membership to a local CFA member society, and complete the CFA Program.

The CFA Program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam. Completing the Program takes most candidates between two and five years (there is no limit to the number of times you can take each exam), but you can take as long as you need to complete the program.

The Program reflects a broad Candidate Body of Knowledge™ (CBOK) developed and continuously updated by active practitioners to ensure that charterholders possess knowledge grounded in the real world of today's global investment industry.

Learn more about the CFA charter, the CFA Program, and current charterholders (PDF).

Review the CFA Program enrollment and exam registration deadlines, view the CFA exam fee schedule, and get started.

Value for Your Career

The CFA Program equips you with the practical and fundamental knowledge you need for a wide variety of career choices in the investment profession. Completing the Program places you in elite company, confirming your mastery of the curriculum and your success in the profession.

Enroll & Register

Before you enroll in the CFA Program and register for your first exam:

• Meet the entrance requirements:

- Have a bachelor's (or equivalent) degree
 - or be in the final year of your bachelor's degree program at the time of registration
 - or have four years of professional work experience (does not have to be investment related)
 - or have a combination of professional work and college experience that totals at least four years. Part-time positions do not qualify, and the four-year total must be accrued prior to enrollment.
 - If you initially enroll/register as a final year undergraduate student with a degree in progress, you may not register for the Level II exam until you have earned your degree, or obtained professional work experience that meets the program's entrance requirements. At the time your degree is awarded, you may update your account education information to certify that your degree has been received.
- Understand the professional conduct requirements (you will be asked to sign the Professional Conduct Statement and Candidate Responsibility Statement)
- Be prepared to take the exams in English
- Effective 1 January 2011: Have a valid international travel passport (required for enrollment and exam registration). Read the ID policy.
- Decide when to take your exam, where to take your exam, and review the exam fee schedule.
- Know your candidate responsibilities.
- Avoid an "incomplete application" status; view additional application information.

Note for new candidates: After you receive your registration confirmation e-mail, it may take up to 12 hours before your status on the My CFA portal reflects your candidacy.
